

Expectation of Behaviour On Site

Whilst the public are on our premises there is an expectation that behaviour by both staff and visitors, including parents of pupils, will meet certain standards.

Our staff will be polite and courteous towards you at all times. If you feel a member of staff has behaved in an unacceptable way please end your discussion and report the matter in writing to the head teacher. They will then contact you to investigate and attempt to resolve your complaint.

In return it is our expectation that you will be polite and courteous to staff. If staff are subjected to unacceptable behaviour they have been instructed to end the discussion with you and inform you of the reasons. You may be asked to leave the premises. A letter to confirm the reasons why you were asked to leave and the action that we intend to take as a result will be sent to you. You will be given the opportunity to discuss the matter with us in a calm and civil manner. If the incident is particularly serious or is repeated you may be barred from the premises.

The following behaviours are unacceptable:

- swearing, spitting, shouting, threatening words or gestures
- entering another's personal space
- physical intimidation and the use of force such as pushing, pulling, poking, prodding etc.
- racist, ageist, homophobic and sexist comments
- heavy petting or inappropriate sexual behaviour
- being under the influence of drugs or alcohol whilst on our premises
- smoking whilst on our premises / by entrances where children have to pass by

Care should also be taken that your clothing will not offend. Clothing should be appropriate and not bearing any words / slogans which are unacceptable such as:

- racist, ageist and sexist comments
- swear words
- graphic cartoons / symbols

Visitor Behaviour Policy

Policy Aims/Objectives

The aim of this policy is to ensure, as far as we reasonably can, the safety of staff who have contact with the public. Whilst it is important for the public, including parents, students, and family members, that they are treated fairly and without discrimination, it is equally important that staff are treated similarly by the public.

By having a clear understanding of what constitutes unacceptable behaviour and a consistent procedure for responding to situations where behaviour is unacceptable, it is hoped that the public will gain an understanding of the boundaries and staff will feel reassured that should they find themselves in this situation, there is a process to resolve it. Staff, parents and Governors have contributed to the development of this policy.

Consequences of unacceptable behaviour

Step one

1.1 On the first instance of an individual's behaviour being unacceptable, they will be immediately informed of this and asked to regain their composure. If necessary staff should withdraw from the area and wait for the individual to become calmer. If they do regain their composure and are able to proceed in an acceptable manner the interview/discussion should be completed. The member of staff should complete the Violence and Abuse Report. No further action against the individual should be necessary.

1.2 If staff are concerned that the individual has not been able to regain their composure they should ask them to leave the premises. If the individual leaves, albeit reluctantly, the member of staff should complete the Violence and Abuse Report Form and Step two should be applied.

1.3 If they do not do so, or they react to this request in a violent manner, the police should be contacted and Step 4.2 should be applied.

Step two

2.1 The individual should be contacted formally by letter to confirm the Statement of Expectation of Behaviour. They should be offered an appointment to discuss the incident and/or the matter which gave rise to their behaviour in a calm and cooperative manner.

When the individual attends the meeting they should not be seen by a lone member of staff.

2.2 If the incident was of such severity that their presence, even for the purposes of this meeting, is considered to present an unacceptable risk, the individual should be advised to submit their case in writing with details of the person to write to and the date by which written representation should be received.

2.3 They should also be advised that failure to attend the meeting or to submit their case in writing will mean a decision is taken in their absence.

2.4 If you suspect that the individual may have literacy needs, which would inhibit their understanding of the correspondence sent to them, this should be established so as to investigate alternative methods of communication. This may include the use of the translation service, relaying the information by telephone or the inclusion of an advocate in the arrangements.

Step three

3.1 If, at the meeting the individual presents acceptable behaviour, i.e. is calm and understands the actions that the manager has taken, and dialogue relating to the underlying concern is possible no further action should be taken.

3.2 If however, the individual presents unacceptable behaviour at the meeting they will be advised to leave the premises as in Step one.

Step Four

4.1 The individual should be advised, in writing, that as a second incident of unacceptable behaviour has occurred, an application has been made to the Legal Department that will result in their being prohibited from the premises.

4.2 In extreme circumstances where the risk to the safety of staff is high, an immediate prohibition can be issued, with details of the reasons why such action was considered appropriate.

Step five

Legal Services should be contacted with regard to prohibiting the individual from the premises. The prohibition should state the date the prohibition takes effect and the date on which it will be reviewed.

Step six

6.1 If the individual adheres to the prohibition and does not present unacceptable behaviour at the agreed review time, they should be invited to discuss the lifting of the prohibition. However they should also be assured that any return to unacceptable behaviour will result in the reinstatement of the prohibition.

6.2 If the individual does not adhere to the terms of the prohibition Legal Services should be informed immediately with the details of the contravention, including witness statements to support the information. It is not acceptable to report third party information that the individual did not adhere to the prohibition. The persons citing the individual must provide a statement confirming the time and details that the event took place.

Step seven

Legal Service should turn the prohibition into an injunction with power of arrest. This will be served on the individual at their home address.

Step eight

8.1 The presence of the individual once an injunction has been served should result in a call to the police to undertake the arrest.

8.2 The adherence to the injunction by the individual should result in a review as in Step 6.1.

Telephone conversations

This Policy's remit also includes telephone conversations.

Acceptable Behaviour

The aim must always be that an individual can access services and premises in a safe and non abusive manner and that staff feel safe and secure in providing those services. The opportunity for the individual to demonstrate acceptable behaviour must be made available to them and thereby the removal of whichever step in the process their behaviour has achieved.

Reporting Incidents

All incidents of violence and abuse must be reported to the Headteacher and Governors via the appropriate form. Information may be shared with other Council Service Groups.

This will only be undertaken where the individual has contact with other Service Groups within the Council and there is reason to believe that their behaviour poses a similar risk to those staff.

CCTV

The school utilises this technology and images from these may be used in the event of investigating unacceptable behaviour.

Training

Appropriate staff training will be undertaken as required.

Complaints Policy

A copy of this is available on the School's Website. A hard copy of this and any other policy may be requested, free of charge, from the School Office.
