Year One This week

This week we have been looking at the Gruffalo's Child in English. We wrapped up warm and listened to the story sat under a tree. During morning write we have looked at other Julia Donaldson books which we will continue over the next couple of weeks.

In phonics we have looked at the alternative pronunciations of the phoneme y. We have included writing words with y in homework this week.

In maths we have continued with addition and used different strategies and concrete objects to help us.

Next week

Next week we will continue our work on 'The Gruffalo's Child'. We will be writing character and setting descriptions as well as acting out different parts of the story.

It's that time of year! We will be performing our Christmas Play. There will be a collection on the door and the FOBPS will also be running a raffle stall on the way in.

Year Two

This week

The children have finished their work on division. They have worked exceptionally hard dividing amounts by ten and have answered division word problems confidently. In English we have been writing character and setting descriptions and really focussing on our vocabulary.

Next Week

Next week we will be moving onto fractions in Maths. We will be looking in particular at fractions of shapes including halves, quarters and thirds. In English we will continue our work on the Nativity story.

It's that time of year! We will be performing our Christmas Play. There will be a collection on the door and the FOBPS will also be running a raffle stall on the way in.

Stars of the week

Y1- Sian for fantastic vocabulary in her writing.

Y2 - Archie for fantastic effort all week.
