

Key Stage One News

2nd March 2018

This week has been a snowy one! The children have enjoyed the opportunity to be creative and play in the snow which has been a truly beautiful sight! Next week the KS1 children have visits from Warburtons. The children will have the opportunity to learn new facts and also make bread! Both the Y1 and Y2 children will do follow up activities following the visits. These will include writing recounts and evaluating what they have made.
