

Reception News

15th December 2017

This week

This week we have enjoyed practising for our Nativity and have now had our first dress rehearsal. The children are now very excited about showing the whole school on Monday and relatives on Tuesday.

We have set up a Post Office in the role play area where the children have been writing and posting letters. We also wrote Christmas cards to send home and have been VERY impressed with the progress they have made in their handwriting – well done Reception children.

This week we also welcomed Miss Ellis into our classroom to work with the children on a voluntary basis.

Everybody Welcome

Thank you

Thank you to those who have offered to walk to church on Friday. You'll be guaranteed a festive service to get you into the spirit of Christmas (if you're not already!)

Next Week

In phonics next week we will be re-capping the sounds we've learnt so far and in maths will be continuing working with repeating patterns.

Christmas Party – Thursday

Our Christmas party takes place during school time but if the children would like to change into party clothes they can do after lunch. School is supplying a drink and a snack and, as well as a few party games, we are expecting a very special visitor (you can probably guess who!).

Reception Superstars

Superstar of the week is Sebi Zamfirescu for his enthusiasm to read.

Eddy the Teddy missed going home Sonny Naismith last week so will go home this weekend instead.
