Reception News

22nd September 2016

This week

Firstly we would like to say thank you for attending the reading meeting last night. We hope it was useful to you and if you have any further questions or are worried about anything at all please don't hesitate to talk to us.

This week we have had a great time exploring sound on a listening walk in Forest schools and making our own musical instruments. On Monday morning the children were very excited to find that someone had stolen numbers from the number line in the classroom (many had good ideas about who had taken them - Mrs Scott being the most popular culprit!). They then hunted for them in the outdoor area and put them back in the correct place. This will help them

Next Week

This week we will continue with our senses theme by exploring sight. We will be making our Christmas cauliflower cards and baking for the Macmillan Coffee Morning.

Phonics

We have introduced sound buttons to the children this week to help them segment and blend words. We have continued with sounds learnt so far and next week will revisit g, o, c, k and tricky word and.
