

Reception News

This week

This week the children enjoyed setting up the role play area as a toy shop with lots of teddies and had fun being filmed acting out "The Enormous Turnip". My intention is to send them to you via email to share with your child and would love to hear what you think.

On Wednesday, Reception and Nursery joined together to celebrate Chinese New Year. They learnt about how the animals were chosen for the Chinese Zodiac (I wonder if they can remember any of the 12 that were chosen, and the one that did not! – a cat). They made lanterns, had a go at writing numbers to 10 in chinese, tried some noodles and prawn crackers and made dragon masks and puppets. In the afternoon they took part in a dragon dance and played the accompanying music. We hope you enjoy seeing the photos on facebook. The week has finished with some valentine crafts.

We hope you have a fun half term.

Mrs Osman, Mrs Robinson and Miss Ellis.

Next Week

There is no extra homework for the holidays but please still read with the children when you can and practice the tricky word cards. A new set of green tricky words has been sent home too. These are words that we have introduced this half term so the children should be familiar with them.
