Nursery News

2nd March 2018

This Week

What a 'topsy turvey' and unusual week at nursery! I hope you have been able to enjoy the snow whilst at home this week? We did on Tuesday when we built snowmen and created snow angels outside in the snow.

On Friday it was great to see children come to school in their pyjamas and bring their favourite books to share with us for World Book Day. We will pass out the World Book Day vouchers when we receive them.

Stars of the Week

This week our star is Nieve for her overall enthusiasm at all times in nursery.

Next Week

Next week we will carry on with the activities we didn't complete last week. We will think about positional language alongside 2D shape. We will read the Three Billy Goats Gruff and create something special for Mother's Day. In Phonics we will look at the sound 'n'.
