Nursery News

9th March 2018

This Week

We have seen snow again this week but only for a short time and now we see the sunshine how crazy our weather is. We were able to go out into forest schools and use our positional language climbing on, over, under and on top of lots of natural objects outside. We have enjoyed the Billy Goats Gruff story and were concerned for the Troll living under the bridge.

We have been lucky enough to cook the bread given to us by Reception class as well as bake banana muffins, some of which we gave to all the adults who work in school.

Next Week

In Phonics we will consolidate the sounds learnt so and blend the sounds together to hear simple cvc words. In Forest schools we will search for sounds that are hidden around the Millenium garden. We will listen to the 'Tiger who came to Tea' and practice using our name card to help us write our name if we need it.

We will also learn a Days of the week song.

Reminders

- The staff caring for and educating your children are Mrs Potter, Mrs Maltby, Mrs Charlton and Mrs Wall.
- Please make sure your child has wellies and a waterproof coat in nursery at all times. (no crocs or laces if possible)
- If you are likely to be late picking up or someone else is picking up your child please phone and let us know.

Stars of the Week

This week our star is Charlotte Illsley for always trying her best with a smile on her face.
